

Date: August 25, 2010

To: Clients of Hagerstown Medical Laboratory, Inc.

From: John G. Newby, MD
Director of Laboratories

Subject: Revision of Reference Range for Potassium

Hagerstown Medical Laboratory will revise the reference range for plasma/serum potassium for adult patients on August 26, 2010. Review of nearly 10,000 Potassium values on ambulatory patients indicates that a range of 3.7 to 5.4 meq/L is a more correct assessment of our adult population.

If you have further questions or need further information, please contact me by calling 301-665-4900 or 1-800-428-2105.